

1st RISEN Workshop on New trends in Crime Scene Investigations

8 October 2021

Classification level: Public

Time	Title of the presentation	Presented by
9:00-9:10	Welcome	Norwegian Defence Research Establishment (FFI, Norway)
9:10-9:30	Keynote speech: Crime Scene Investigations and EU security research	European Commission (DG Migration and Home Affairs, Belgium)
9:30-9:45	The RISEN Project	Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development (ENEA, Italy)
9:45-10:00	Crime Scene Investigation – mid- and long-term needs for innovation	European Network of Forensic Science Institutes, Scene of Crime Workgroup (ENFSI, Germany)
10:00-10:30	Incident response to the Kenyan and Sri Lankan suicide bombings	The International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL, France)
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-11:15	Information sharing after a CBRNE incident	CBRN & Explosives Team (EUROPOL, The Netherlands)
11:15-11:35	CSI: Where to from here	Ecole des sciences criminelles, University of Lausanne (Switzerland)
11:35-11:55	Crime Scene R&D and future developments	European Network of Forensic Science Institutes, R&D Standing Committee (ENFSI, Germany)
11:55-12:20	The Role of the UK Forensic Capability Network – delivering, research, validation and new technology	Forensic Capability Network (United Kingdom)
12:20-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:25	The future of crime scene recording	Dutch National Police (The Netherlands)
13:25-13:50	The I-LEAD project	International Engagement Home Office Science (United Kingdom)
RISEN contribution to CSI
13:50-14:15	Incident and crime scene activities today	Military University of Technology (Poland) The University of Bergamo (Italy)
14:15-14:45	RISEN approach to CSI	PARTICLE Summary Lda (Portugal) Technical Research Centre of Finland Ltd (VTT, Finland)
14:45-15:00	Break
15:00-15:20	Legal and ethical challenges in the evolving forensics landscape	The Center for Security Studies (KEMEA, Greece)
15:20-15:40	Standardization landscape in the field of CSI	German Institute for Standardization (DIN, Germany)
15:40-16:30	Open discussion / Summary of RISEN Virtual Workshop	Norwegian Defence Research Establishment (FFI, Norway)
16:30	END

<https://www.risen-h2020.eu/>

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 883116.